La Roche College to Offer Tuition Scholarship to all High School Students Attending the Rotary Gateway Teen Leadership Institute

PITTSBURGH – The Rotary Gateway Teen Leadership Institute (RGTLI), an annual leadership, prevention, and service conference for teens, recently accepted an offer from La Roche College for an annual $2,000 tuition scholarship for all high school students attending RGTLI this summer.

RGTLI for middle and high school students will be held Sunday, July 27 through Wednesday, July 30, 2008 at La Roche College.

“This conference will be an excellent opportunity for students to experience La Roche College’s campus and know they can continue their leadership training here with financial support from the college,” said Ken Service, La Roche College vice president for institutional relations.

To qualify for the tuition credit, RGTLI attendees must first be accepted into La Roche College and then maintain a 3.0 GPA.

“Because education and prevention play such an important role in dealing with substance abuse in our community, Gateway Rehab remains committed to prevention programs that inspire teens to lead their peers toward making positive choices,” said Kenneth S. Ramsey, Ph.D, Gateway Rehab president and CEO.

RGTLI is a partnership between Gateway Rehab and Rotary International District 7300. Teens with demonstrated leadership potential and a commitment to a healthy, drug-free lifestyle can be nominated for RGTLI by a school representative, youth advisor, mentor, or a Rotary Club member.
