

Richard Foster has worked at Gateway Rehabilitation Center since 1991. He is currently the Director for Gateway's Corrections Division. His previous positions at Gateway include: Intern, Counselor, Therapist, Aftercare Group Facilitator, OPC/OPG Therapist, Clinical Case Manager, Senior Therapist, Therapy Manager, & Program Director. He has worked in all levels of care with adults, adolescents, and gender-specific populations in numerous Gateway locations, including: Aliquippa, Beaver Co. Jail, Braddock, Eleanor Roosevelt & Sheffield Towers Transitional Housing, Erie, Erie Co. Prison, Greentree, North Hills, and Westmoreland Hospital.

Richard Foster is a consultant and clinician who makes numerous public speaking appearances and conducts trainings on addiction, community corrections, motivational interviewing, anger management, clinical supervision, and other recovery related topics. These include: workshops, class room instruction, conferences, lectures, and radio shows. He has been employed as an Adjunct Instructor by Robert Morris University and presents regularly for the Pennsylvania Certification Board (PCB).

Richard Foster is currently a candidate for the degree: Doctorate of Philosophy (Ph.D.) in Administration and Leadership Studies of Human Services (Dissertation Phase) at Indiana University of Pennsylvania (Dr. Robert J. Ackerman-Committee Chair). He earned a Bachelor of Arts-(B.A., 1990) in Clinical Sociology and a Master of Arts (M.A., 1992) in Human Services with a specialization in Drug and Alcohol Abuse Studies from Indiana University of Pennsylvania.

Richard Foster holds the following Pennsylvania Certification Board (PCB) credentials: Certified Addictions Counselor Diplomate (CAC Diplomate-1995) & Certified Clinical Supervisor (CCS-1999). Richard Foster is a Board Member for The Community Corrections Association of Pennsylvania (CCAP) and is Chairperson for the 2008 CCAP Conference. Mr. Foster is also a member of the following organizations: The American Correctional Association (ACA), The International Community Corrections Association (ICCA), and The Pennsylvania Association on Probation, Parole, and Corrections (PAPPC).

Richard Foster is a finalist for the position of Board of Director for the Pennsylvania Certification Board (PCB).